

Semester	Level	Toics/Units	Focus Points	Midterm Exam	Duration
1st Semester	A1	Greeting and Introduction	Practice basic questions and answers for introductions to improve oral expression.	Oral Exam: Introduction and simple conversations on personal topics (Speaking)  Written Exam: Reading comprehension and simple text production (Writing, Reading)	4 Hours/Week
		Numbers, Time, and Date	Important topics for everyday communication, both orally and in writing. Students practice listening and understanding this information.		4 Hours/Week
		Family, Friends, Hobbies	Focus on understanding and describing simple relationships in everyday life.		4 Hours/Week
		Shopping and Ordering	Practice communicating in typical everyday situations, such as shopping.		4 Hours/Week
		Grammar	Learn to form simple sentences, use personal pronouns, articles, present tense verbs, questions, negations, prepositions, and basic sentence structures.		4 Hours/Week
	A2	Travel and Transportation	Practice conversations about travel and understand relevant information.	Oral Exam: Dialogue on travel and transportation (Speaking)  Written Exam: Listening comprehension and writing short texts (Listening, Writing)	4 Hours/Week
		Shopping and Services	Expansion of vocabulary and skills to communicate in various everyday situations.		4 Hours/Week
		Living and Environment	Vocabulary for describing living conditions is deepened.		4 Hours/Week
		Festivals and Celebrations	Introduction to cultural topics that may also appear in exam questions.		4 Hours/Week
		Grammar	Learn to use perfect tense, preterite, separable and inseparable verbs, modal verbs, reflexive verbs, prepositions with dative and accusative, and adjective comparisons.		4 Hours/Week

2nd Semester	B1	Profession and Work Environment	Professional conversations as needed for the B1 test.	Oral Exam: Students participate in a role play, conducting a job interview or discussing professional topics.	4 Hours/Week
		Health and Body	Vocabulary and phrases for conversations with doctors or in health contexts.		4 Hours/Week
		Media and Technology	How to talk about modern media and technology, important for the oral exam.		4 Hours/Week
		Travel and Vacation	Expansion of vocabulary to describe travel plans and experiences.	Written Exam: Students read a medium-length text and write a formal email or letter in response.	4 Hours/Week
		Grammar	Learn to form the future tense, use conjunctions to link sentences, form relative clauses, use indirect speech in the subjunctive, and distinguish between dative and accusative in prepositions.		4 Hours/Week
	B2	Society and Politics	Discussions on complex societal topics, as they also appear in the oral exam.	Oral Exam: Students discuss societal topics, such as environmental protection or political issues, expressing their opinions and arguments.	4 Hours/Week
		Environment and Sustainability	An important topic that appears in texts and listening comprehension exercises.		4 Hours/Week
		Economy and Finance	Exercises on formal and informal writing tasks.		4 Hours/Week
		Literature and Culture	Students can talk about cultural topics and literature and demonstrate this in exams.	Written Exam: Students analyze a text and write an essay on a current topic or literary question.	4 Hours/Week
		Grammar	Students use the subjunctive II for unreal conditions and wishes, form passive sentences, extend their relative clauses, nominalize verbs, intensify adjectives, and use complex prepositions correctly.		4 Hours/Week

3rd Semester	C1	Discussions on Current Topics	Preparation for demanding discussions on political, societal, or scientific topics.	Oral Exam: Students engage in a demanding discussion on a current topic, such as the impact of digitalization on society.  Written Exam: Students write a scientific essay on a complex topic, such as the influence of technology on communication.	4-5 Hours/Week
		Science and Research	Specialized vocabulary and text comprehension on scientific topics.		4-5 Hours/Week
		Interpersonal Relationships	More complex conversations and text production on interpersonal communication topics.		4-5 Hours/Week
		Media Criticism and Analysis	Ability to analyze and critically question media content, also in exam questions.		4-5 Hours/Week
		Grammar	Students master the extended use of the subjunctive II, complex passive constructions, conditional clauses, adverbs and participles in complex sentences, and connect thoughts with precise conjunctions.		4-5 Hours/Week
	C2	Specialized Topics and Areas of Expertise	Preparation for discussions and exam questions on specialized topics.	Oral Exam: Students give a professional presentation on a specific topic, followed by a discussion and answering questions.  Written Exam: Students interpret a difficult text (e.g., from literature or scientific sources) and write a detailed report or essay.	5 Hours/Week
		Rhetoric and Presentation Techniques	Learn to present their arguments clearly and convincingly, both orally and in writing.		5 Hours/Week
		Complex Text Interpretations	Exercises on difficult, abstract texts and their interpretation.		5 Hours/Week
		Intensive Language Production and Usage	Focus on fluent communication, both spontaneous and formal.		5 Hours/Week
		Final Exam and Project Work	In this unit, students are prepared for all exam formats of the Goethe Certificate to test their skills in all areas (reading, listening, speaking, writing).		5 Hours/Week